

I've had the privilege of knowing Betsy Richard on both a professional and personal level for nearly 20 years. She is wise, insightful, loyal, disciplined, devoted and focused. Betsy is a servant leader who puts others first, and has a deep desire to impact the world for good.

It has been a joy to do life with Betsy because she never compromises her values and beliefs for short term success. Consequently, she has built a business and a life that are historically strong and have great sustainable success. Both that business and her life have blessed multitudes of people.

Betsy is a dynamic, engaging, energetic, challenging teacher and speaker. She delivers a "home run" with each assignment, much due to the level of prayer and preparation she invests into each assignment. She has a remarkable way of connecting with each member of the audience, valuing people, and challenging listeners to rise up and take action. She will deliver beyond your expectations, and will wholeheartedly partner with you for significant progress and growth in your organization.

Amie Gamboian